Austrian Federal President Dr. Heinz Fischer has conferred the Cross of Honor for Science and Art to Gregorij von Leitis. On June 9, Dr. Georg Heindl, Austrian Consul General in New York presented this high honor to the theatre director, artistic director and cultural manager. In his laudatory remarks Dr. Heindl emphasized that Gregorij von Leitis has always considered the theatre to be a moral institution in the spirit of Friedrich Schiller who first coined this expression. As an example, Georg Heindl mentioned the many endeavors of Gregorij von Leitis and Elysium to integrate minorities by means of art; in the 1980s Elysium organized one of the first AIDS benefits for the newly founded and fledgling Gay Men's Health Crisis (GMHC), and Elysium also instituted a regular Theatre for the Homeless.

Georg Heindl especially stressed the tireless efforts of Gregorij von Leitis to rediscover and present the works of composers and writers who were persecuted, banned and silenced by the Nazi-Regime. Many of those murdered and exiled artists were Austrian.

Gregorij von Leitis thanked the Austrian government institutions and in particular the Austrian Cultural Forum New York for more than three decades of intensive and productive partnership and cooperation. At the same time he expressed his gratitude to the many friends and supporters saying that without their dedication and loyal help he could not have accomplished all this work. A number of those friends who have accompanied and supported Elysium - between two continents and The Lahr von Leitis Academy & Archive, were invited by Dr. Georg Heindl and his wife Neline Koornneef Heindl to attend this ceremony and the dinner following immediately afterwards.
